PRACTICAL HEALTH TALKS

Lillian Whitney, M.D.

Dr. Whitney's popular articles on health and beauty subjects in several leading magazines have been attracting marked attention for a number of years. No other writer on similar topics is better equipped for the work. Dr. Whitney has established an enviable reputation as a specialist and is endowed with the ability to make herself easily understood by her readers. She will answer all letters relating to her department as promptly as possible. All letters should be accompanied by a stamped envelope and should be addressed care of this paper.

HAIR AND SCALP TROUBLES—NO. V.

Women are as a rule not confronted with that bugbear of middle age, thinning hair, although the hair grows thinner with age and at times does fall out enough to require special care. This is often the case after a severe illness, especially typhoid fever. The custom of cutting the hair close and even shaving the scalp is now antiquated. Singeing has absolutely no effect upon falling hair or in strengthening what is left. This is a fallacious popular idea. Clip broken ends, of course, as they look unsightly, but treat the scalp! Very often no amount of local treatment avails when the constitution is at fault.

The following preparation is highly extolled by a noted specialist for all conditions of scant, thinning and falling hair: Quinine sulphate, seventy-five grains; tincture of cantharides, two ounces; weaker tincture of orris, four ounces; cologne water, ten ounces; water, ten ounces; alcohol, eight ounces; tincture of eucalyptus, enough to color. Dissolve the quinine in the cologne water and alcohol, add the tincture, coloring and water, let stand a day. Filter, add a few drops of the cologne water, and bottle. Use with a medicine dropper or sprinker, stopper, and rub briskly into the scalp every night, then two or three times weekly.

The hair may become gray prematurely as a result of illness, nervous conditions, neuritic headaches, or this may be a family trait. While beautiful, and just now extremely fashionable, it is often objectionable. Can it be remedied without resorting to dyes? Pilocarpine or its active principle Jaborandi, has long been known to possess the property of restoring the hair as well as promoting its growth.

Here is appended the formula of a famous French dermatologist, which, like the above tonic, is employed by men and women of taste and discrimination: Quinine sulphate, twenty grains; tincture of Jaborandi, one ounce; glycerine, one ounce; cologne water, two ounces; bay rum, two ounces; water, eleven ounces; dilute sulphuric acid, eleven drops. Dissolve the quinine in the rose-water with the aid of the acid, add the other ingredients and filter. Rub into the scalp with friction every day or other day. This is likewise an excellent lotion for dark hair, but is not applicable for other shades unless the Jaborandi is omitted.

Answers to Queries.

Grandmother: There is no bleach applicable for white hair. Give it a scrupulous daily care. Some think that of which you complain—yellowish white hair—far prettier than the dead white. Never use tar soap or dark hair tonics upon it.

Haldness: Scientists now advance the theory that baldness occurring in middle life and for which all available means seem useless, is caused by defective secretions of the ductless glands. However this may be, the nutrition of the scalp is surely at fault, because in men early and complete loss of hair is decidedly more pronounced than in women. Due, some believe, to their habits, both local and constitutional. Locally, the frequent washing of the hair with soap and water dries out the scalp. The wearing of stiff hats chokes off the circulation. Constitutionally, men suffer more from arterio-sclerosis (hardening of the arteries) than women, and this blocks the circulation of the scalp. To promote the nutrition of the scalp daily massage with warm oil is excellent. The massage must be deep and penetrating, so that a feeling of tingling warmth remains. The galvanic current is also good. The

NO QUININE IN THIS COLD CURE

"Pape's Cold Compound" Ends Colds and Grippe in a Few Hours.

Take "Pape's Cold Compound" every two hours until you have taken three doses, then all at once, and your cold will be broken. It promptly opens your clogged nostrils and the air passages of the head; stops nasty discharge or nose running; relieves the headache, dizziness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness. Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffling. Ease your throbbing head—nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only 25 cents at any drug store. It acts without anesthesia, tastes nice, and causes no inconvenience. Accept no substitute.

Eight More Working Days Under Special Offer for "50,000 Club"

Every Candidate Turning in $18 Worth of Subscriptions During Period Will Receive 32,000 Extra Votes. Double This Means $5 in Gold.

Things seem to be moving along rather slowly in some of the districts in the "50,000 Club," and it is now up to the live members in these districts to take advantage of the special offer, whereby every candidate worth $18 thousands of extra votes and win an additional cash prize of $5 in gold. The offer affords candidates an opportunity to get more votes on subscriptions than they will obtain at any other period of the campaign.

Every candidate who turns in new subscriptions to the total amount of $18 between February 12 and 11 o'clock on Saturday night, February 26, will be given a special ballot of 32,000 votes over and above the regular votes allowed on the subscriptions. This means that every $18 worth of new subscriptions turned in during the extra offer will count for a ballot of 32,000 bonus votes. The extra votes will be issued in the form of a "special certificate" immediately at the close of the offer, February 26.

No Limit to Ballots. There is no limit to the number of special ballots any candidate may win. Any candidate who turns in as much as $36 worth of new subscriptions or, in other words, wins two special ballots, will be given $5 in gold as an extra reward.

If some of your friends have entered you in the race, and you have been asleep on the job, now is the time for you to arouse yourself and get on the war path. A few hours devoted to campaigning for votes will bring you the biggest results right now, while your subscriptions count for the most. See the vote schedule at the end of this article and figure up just how many votes you can get by turning in as much as $18 worth of new subscriptions before February 26, figure up the votes on the subscriptions, then add 32,000 votes, and you will have the correct total.

No one is making a runaway race of it yet, and it is time for several of the members who are in the 1,000 class to cut busy. It will take only a few subscriptions to get enough votes to bring you up with the leaders in any district. When your friends see that you are a leader they will be more interested in your success, and the added publicity will be of great value in letting all your friends know that you are out to be a winner.

There are still eight more working days in the special offer, and now is the time to pitch in and win at least one special ballot of 32,000 votes before February 26. It would also be a good plan to try hard to get still another $18 worth of new subscriptions, which will entitle you to two special certificates of 32,000 votes each and also a brand new $5 gold piece. Any member who is fortunate enough to gain two special ballots would be in a fine position to go to the rest of the route and land a winner, as subscriptions are worth more now than they ever will be again. While it is not expected that many members will win the $5 golden eagle, The Herald will be glad to present all the members of the "50,000 Club" with a gold piece. It is only a matter of time to obtain two special certificates or 64,000 votes.

DANDRUFF GOES!

HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in a Few Moments. Try This!

Hair Stops Coming Out and Every Particle of Dandruff Disappears.

Try as you will, after an application of Dandruff, you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair, and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most, will be after a few weeks when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. A little Dandruff immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and lifeless, just moisten a cloth with Dandruff and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness, and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandruff from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment.

Dandruff is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorating and strengthening them. Its exhilarating, stimulating, and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong, and beautiful—Adv.
